ANDREW HILL INVESTMENT ADVISORS, INC. PARTNERS WITH CYPRESS TRUST COMPANY FOR CORPORATE TRUSTEE SERVICES

NAPLES, FL. – Andrew Hill Investment Advisors, Inc. (AHIA), a Naples-based investment and wealth management advisory firm, today announced that it has entered into a strategic alliance with Cypress Trust Company to handle corporate trustee services.

The agreement enables AHIA to tap the resources of Cypress Trust Company in serving clients, particularly those who create a trust for the benefit of themselves or heirs because the investment advisory firm does not have trust powers and cannot act as trustee. The partnership allies two Florida-based organizations with strong local ties and management.

“We are excited about our strategic alliance with Cypress Trust Company which will enable us to provide more well-rounded financial planning services to our clients,” said Andrew D.W. Hill, President and Co-Founder of Andrew Hill Investment Advisors. “We also see the opportunity to offer sophisticated investment advice to mutual clients.”

Among the many areas where AHIA and Cypress Trust Company will work together are revocable and irrevocable living trusts, testamentary trusts, charitable trusts, and IRAs. The two also may coordinate estate settlement services and personalized services such as bill payment, asset safekeeping and comprehensive estate plan, and document review.

“We have known Andy and his investment management team for many years and are pleased to provide trust and estate services for those clients who require such representation,” said Jack R. Kuhn, Senior Vice President and Market Executive for Cypress Trust Company. “As a boutique trust company, we have the ability to customize our solutions to meet our clients’ unique needs and provide highly personalized service.”

Established in Palm Beach in 1996, Cypress Trust Company is a Florida chartered boutique trust and investment management firm serving individuals and their families, non-profit organizations, foundations, and endowments. The trust company currently maintains full-service offices in Palm Beach, Naples, Vero Beach and Winter Haven with additional representation in Sarasota and The Villages in Central Florida.

Founded in 2010, Andrew Hill Investment Advisors is an investment advisory firm registered with the State of Florida and manages funds for individuals, trusts, small business pension plans and captive insurance companies. The boutique firm provides highly personalized investment management and financial concierge services for its clients. Fidelity Institutional Wealth Services is the primary custodian of client assets.
